Reporting Options

Confidential or Anonymous

On campus, some resources may maintain confidentiality. They may offer options and resources without any obligation to inform an outside agency or campus official unless a student has requested the information be shared.

- Licensed professional counselors within Counseling & Psychological Services;
- Health Services providers & staff;
- Members of the clergy working within their ordination, including the University Chaplain;
- LiveSafe Application anonymous reporting options:
  - Report suspicious activity & emergencies;
  - Live chat with University Police;

Formal Reports & Assistance

Except for the confidential resources, all University employees (faculty, staff, administrators) are required to report actual or suspected sexual harassment and/or misconduct to appropriate officials immediately. Students can seek assistance from University officials, such as:

- University Public Safety & Police Department:
  - Assistance with immediate or ongoing threats and safety concerns;
- Office of Institutional Equity & Title IX Coordinator:
  - Assistance with a formal grievance process for sexual misconduct and bias-related concerns
- Dean of Students Office & Office of Residential Life:
  - Assistance with interpersonal issues, conduct concerns, and overall life circumstances;
  - Staff available on-call for assistance with safety & support;

Sexual Harassment & Misconduct Policy

Important definitions including affirmative consent, severe & pervasive sexual harassment, domestic and dating violence, stalking, sexual assault, and more.

Reporting options which include confidential options and mandatory reporting obligations. Information on filing a formal complaint with the Title IX Coordinator and/or seeking assistance from local law enforcement.

Students may access supportive measures which are reasonably available to restore or preserve access to the University's education program or activity, including safety measures. Access to these measures are available regardless of a student's decision to file a formal complaint.

Grievance procedures for the formal resolution of allegations of harassment and misconduct, as governed by Title IX Regulations (34 CFR Part 106.45).

Harassment & Bias-Motivated Offenses

The University is committed to achieving a diverse and pluralistic community that reflects the multiracial and culturally diverse society in the United States through strict non-discrimination in admissions, educational programs and employment. Our Nondiscrimination & Gender Identity/Expression policies are available in the Student Handbook.

The University does not tolerate harassment directed toward any person or group. It is expected that all members of the University will engage in anti-bias behavior and refrain from actions that intimidate, humiliate, or demean persons or groups or that undermine their security or self-esteem.

Grievance procedures for investigation and adjudication of allegations of harassment and misconduct detailed in the Policy on Harassment & Bias-Motivated Offenses.

Observe Monday's Solar Eclipse with the Astronomy Club

Join the Astronomy Club to witness an incredibly rare event on Monday afternoon! Our location in Connecticut will see the Sun approximately 90% covered (at maximum), making it the last solar eclipse of its kind to pass through the U.S. for 40 more years. Don't miss it!

At 12 and 2 p.m. in the Bixler/Gerber Quad, Dr. Nathan Seifert from the Department of Chemistry and Chemical & Biomedical Engineering will launch the weather balloons to monitor changes in the weather conditions using radiosondes. Observers are welcome to watch the launches arriving 10-15 minutes ahead of each scheduled launch. This event is part of the Charger Nation research program led by Dr. Seifert.
